The Alliance at Work

Active House Days return to Ukraine with “edutainment” in 2019

#AHD is an annual two-day event for architects, designers, builders, developers and realtors, where European and Ukrainian experts will share their experience on how to create optimal conditions for comfort, energy efficiency and environmental safety in buildings. The format of the event is “edutainment” (education + entertainment), along which you can listen to cutting edge experiences in sustainable architecture at the lecture zone, find practical advices from producers at the exhibition zone, catch inspiration at the Active House Best Projects Exhibition, and even teach your child basic principles of sustainable architecture at Active House Kids area. This format and content proved to be so attractive that already ahead of the event it raised the interest of nearly 2000 thousand people last year! See you in Kyiv June 22-23.
